

Performance Tech and Hospitality Rider

(Updated: July 2017)

Leading up to the show...

Hal will provide updated press kit information in digital format, ready for printing or copy/pasting into promoter's promotion items promote event through social media and on website's list of upcoming gigs

Promoter will provide promotion for gig, including but not limited to, posters (where appropriate), digital mention/presence on venue website and social media.

- Questions or concerns prior to the date...

Please contact Hal directly (902-879-0209 or manitobahal@gmail.com) or manager Nicole Colbeck, at little acorn music management (613-323-1782 or nicole.littleacorn@gmail.com) as early as possible in the planning process.

On stage...

Hal will do his own setup; with instruments, effect pedals and a small amp suitable for smaller venue concerts.

- Tech needs...

1 x boom mic stand; 1 x Shure SM58 mic (or equivalent); AC power at front of stage; 1 x monitor; 1 x low, sturdy chair without arms (available only); room temperature tap water (pitcher & glass or 2 bottles, if necessary); and, 1 x small table for water and other small items.

- Sets...

Played as agreed in contract. Otherwise, two sets of approximately 45 minutes.

Off stage...

Green room should include Wi-Fi and access code, AC power mirror, water (room temperature tap water [pitcher and glass]) ... or 2 bottles, if necessary).

- Merchandise sales...

Please provide table or other flat surface for CDs, books and other items for sale (no venue commission), as well as one volunteer to assist selling merchandise.

Hospitality needs...

- Food...

Hal prefers small-portioned, healthy cooked meals that focus on protein and vegetables rather than carb-intensive, convenience meals or fast-food. Sensitivities include: lactose intolerance. If provided, supper should be planned for approximately two hours prior to show time.

- Accommodation...

Motel or hotel room preferred, with Wi-Fi included; but a billet is also gratefully accepted, with prior discussion and approval. A queen- or other suitable bed, and bathroom facilities nearby as well as Wi-Fi and access code.